

AfCFTA promises to unlock the potential for African women to move from micro to macro businesses

For decades, African women have been trapped in poverty cycles due to several underlying factors including unequal access to education, factors of production, and trade facilities; inequitable labour saving technologies; underpaid or unpaid labour; harmful cultural practices; and limited legal protection from gender inequality practices entrenched in society.

Continue Reading

African Women's Decade on Financial & Economic Inclusion

The GEWE emphasises the need for the economic empowerment of women if Africa is to achieve its goals for inclusive and sustainable development as envisioned in Agenda 2063.

African Union priorities on Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment in Agenda 2063

Agenda 2063 envisages a non-sexist Africa, an Africa where girls and boys can reach their full potential, where men and women contribute equally to the development of their societies

African Union Convention & Legal Frameworks aim to break the cycle of violence against women and girls

The most prevalent forms of Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) reported and documented

The African Union Strategy for Gender Equality & Women's Empowerment (GEWE)

The Constitutive Act of the African Union underline the principle of promoting gender equality on the continent

Implementing Gender Responsive Strategies Towards Combatting Covid-19 in Africa

The Covid-19 global pandemic that met a world unprepared to deal with the disruptions it brought on, drastically changing.

Maputo Protocol Scorecard & Index: A Stepping Stone Towards Achieving Women's Rights

Women in Africa are still grappling with many issues that continue to have a negative impact on their enjoyment.