Gravely concerned at the attitude of NATO Member States which, despite the resolutions and appeals of the United Nations and the OAU, continue to give Portugal and the racist minority regimes in Southern Africa constantly increased military and economic support,

Convinced that the support given in various forms by NATO Member States enables these racist regimes to intensify their war of colonial domination and that it therefore constitutes a major obstacle to the national liberation struggle of the African peoples concerned;

Deploring the aid which Portugal and the racist minority regime in Southern Rhodesia receive from IBRD and certain UN specialized agencies,

1. RECOMMENDS that the Assembly of Heads of State and Government should in the most appropriate manner urgently and vigorously request Member States of NATO to ensure that Organization ceases to give the Government of Portugal support enabling that country to intensify its colonial war against the populations of Angola, Mozambique and Guinea-Bissau, since any assistance rendered to Portugal in its genocidal war in Africa constitutes an unfriendly act vis-a-vis the African States,
2. RECOMMENDS that the Assembly of Heads of State and Government should take all necessary measures to ensure that in their respective countries the press, radio, television and any other media of psychological action should exert vigorous and sustained efforts to denounce to international opinion the odious crimes committed by the colonialist Powers and their allied against the African populations in the colonial Territories;

Considering the recommendations of the working party appointed by the Group of 77 during its meeting of 6 August 1968 to improve the machinery of UNCTAD, especially concerning:

- The functions of UNCTAD;
- Its Secretariat;
- Future sessions;
- The Trade and Development Board;
- Inter-governmental groups, expert groups and working parties;
- UNCTAD/GATT relations;
- Documentation.

Considering that the Board, which is now holding its seventh session in Geneva, should be able to take the appropriate decisions regarding the proposals listed above;

1. URGES all African countries to support these proposals.
AFRICA AND UNCTAD (II)

The Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity, meeting in its Eleventh Ordinary Session in Algiers, Algeria, from 4 to 12 September 1968,

Noting that the Second United Nations Conference on Trade and Development did not satisfy all the aspirations of the countries of the third World in general or of Africa in particular,

Noting that the results of the Second UNCTAD were unsatisfactory basically because of the lack or political will on the part of the developed countries,

Noting that the Latin American countries (Members of the Group of 77) met at Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, at Ministerial level from 17 to 26 June 1968, and discussed their common interests in the light of the Second UNCTAD, in preparation for a meeting of the Group of 77 to take place shortly,

Noting that the thorny question of preferences will not be ready for discussion before the Board’s Ninth Session (August/September 1969),

Considering the desirability of holding a further meeting of the Group of 77 before the next session of UNCTAD,

RECOMMENDS:

1. That a meeting of the Group of 77 be convened in Dakar before the Board’s Ninth Session with a view to co-ordinating the views and safeguarding the common interests of the developing countries;

The Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity, meeting in its Eleventh Ordinary Session in Algiers, Algeria, from 4 to 12 September 1968,

Considering the chosen policies set forth in the Algiers Charter, namely, on the one hand the promotions of trade between the industrialized countries and the developing countries and, on the other hand, inter-African economic integration through the reciprocal granting of tariff preferences,

Considering that market integration at the regional level (regional groupings) would not only bring about the basis for necessary industrialization of the continent but would also enhance inter-African trade,

Noting further that many African countries import from outside goods that are available inside Africa, partly as a result of the lack of commercial information on the continent,

Considering that traditional business arrangements and better credit terms elsewhere are two of the underlying reasons for the continuing tendency of inter-African trade to stagnate,

Considering that the widening of regional groups is one of the pre-requisites for the economic integration of the Continent,

Noting with satisfaction the previous efforts by Member States to establish bilateral arrangements,
