

AU-IBAR celebrated its 60 years of existence, the eradication of Rinderpest in Africa and the protection and development of animal resources on the continent on January 16th January 2012. To commemorate this occasion, AU-IBAR published a book accounting for the history, present and future of the institution.

{phocadownload view=file|id=471|target=b}
