14th – 15th November 2018: 20th Extraordinary Session of the Executive Council

17th – 18th November 2018: 11th Extraordinary Session of the Assembly of the Heads of State and Government of the African Union

NOT FOR PUBLICATION OR BROADCAST
THIS ADVISORY IS SUBJECT TO UPDATES

1. ACCREDITATION FOR MEDIA PERSONNEL BASED OUTSIDE ETHIOPIA

All journalists will apply online. The media accreditation form is available on <https://au.int/summit/extraordinary/11>

Once journalists receive confirmation of their application from the Directorate of Information and Communication (DIC), they should print it and, along with their application documents and passport copy, take it to Ethiopian Embassy in their country. Documents should be taken to the PUBLIC DIPLOMACY CENTER and not the visa center.

The documents will be processed by the Ethiopian government authorities through their channels and journalists will receive their visas from their points of application.

All journalists will be issued with journalist visas. No journalist will be allowed to attend the summit on a business or tourist visa.

ACCREDITATION FOR JOURNALISTS APPLYING FROM COUNTRIES WHERE THERE IS NO ETHIOPIAN EMBASSY

Journalists from countries where there is no Ethiopian embassy should fill in the visa on arrival form available on the AU website: www.au.int Once received, DIC will forward it to the Ethiopian Government Communication Office for processing as per the regulations.

ACCREDITATION FOR JOURNALISTS WHO ARE ON MISSION IN COUNTRIES WHERE THERE IS NO ETHIOPIAN EMBASSY

Media personnel who are on mission where there is no Ethiopian embassy should observe the following regulations:

Their organization should facilitate the process for them. Their residence card should be attached to their application documents.

They should go, in person, to collect their visa from their country of residence.

Three methods of accreditation are available for journalists applying from outside Ethiopia.

3. WHAT TO DO IN ETHIOPIA

Journalists will need to get two badges.

- 3.1. The Government press badge will be issued by the government authorities. This involves being photographed before the card is processed. Journalists will be advised in due course of the accreditation venue. This badge will allow access into the AU compound.
- 3.2. AU Conference badge: After getting the government issued press badge, journalists will need to go to the African Union Commission to get their Conference badges. This badge will give them access into the conference rooms during the Summit.

- 3.3. Journalists are advised to make sure they arrive in Ethiopia in good time so as to have the documentation done before the meetings start.
- 3.4. Journalists are also advised to arrive at Summit venues early to ensure that they clear all entry procedures before the meetings start.

4. YELLOW FEVER CARDS

- 4.1. Yellow fever cards will be required at the ports of entry for everyone travelling from yellow fever designated countries.

5. CUSTOMS CLEARANCE FOR MEDIA EQUIPMENT

Accredited media personnel bringing technical equipment with them to Ethiopia will be subject to full Customs Control. Journalists are requested to send their list of equipment (two copies) together with their application for accreditation. (See media equipment form on the AU website).
