Office of Legal Counsel
African Union Commission
P.O. Box 3243, Roosevelt Street (Old Airport Area)
W21K19, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Dear Excellencies,

Re. Application for the position of Chairperson of the African Union Commission

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Chairperson of the African Union Commission (AUC). With over four decades of experience in international diplomacy, governance, and legal affairs, I am confident in my ability to lead the AUC towards achieving the goals and aspirations of Agenda 2063. My distinguished career in high-level ministerial positions and deep commitment to fostering international cooperation and understanding uniquely position me to serve Member States and the AUC with dedication and vision.

Throughout my career, I have demonstrated a strong ability to navigate complex social dynamics and align diverse interests. As the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Tourism & Emigration for the Government of Mauritius, I led high-level delegations, negotiated bilateral agreements, and represented Mauritius at global forums, including the African Union and United Nations. My tenure as Minister of Tourism saw record-breaking increases in tourist arrivals, showcasing my ability to drive economic growth and development. My leadership in enhancing national tourism strategies reflects my capability to drive significant growth and development.

My vision to serve the African Union is grounded in the principles of peace, security, good governance, and sustainable development. Recognizing that persistent conflicts and instability have hindered Africa's progress, I am committed to fostering peace and security through robust strategies and close collaboration with AU Heads of State, government bodies, the African Peace and Security Agenda (APSA) and Regional Economic Communities (RECs). My experience in leading conflict resolution efforts, such as my involvement in the Southern African Development Community (SADC) during the constitutional crisis in the Republic of Comoros, demonstrates my ability to effectively manage crises and promote stability.

Good governance and the rule of law are integral to Africa's prosperity. As AUC Chairperson, I will enhance the credibility and responsiveness of our governance institutions, ensuring alignment with democratic principles and promoting a culture of zero tolerance for corruption. My work with the United Nations Human Rights Commission and as Senior Crown Counsel at the Attorney General's Office has equipped me with a deep understanding of the importance of good governance, rule of law, and human rights. My leadership in the Peer Review Mechanism underscores my commitment to upholding transparency, ethics, and accountability.

I will drive economic integration and sustainable development by promoting policies that eradicate poverty, empower women and youth, and create a secure environment for investment. My leadership in building strong economic networks and fostering entrepreneurial ventures will be essential in unlocking Africa's full potential. Climate change being an urgent challenge that disproportionately affects our continent, I will prioritize its mitigation and advocate for Africa's central role in global climate efforts. By leading initiatives for fair compensation and developing comprehensive climate strategies, we can safeguard Africa's future prosperity and environmental health. Furthermore, recognizing that gender equity, women, and youth empowerment are crucial to Africa's development, I will champion their rights and ensure their active participation in all spheres of society, driving sustainable development and shaping a promising future for our continent. My vision includes championing the Blue Economy, enhancing infrastructure, and addressing climate change challenges.

In conclusion, my extensive experience in international relations, strategic leadership, and commitment to the principles of good governance and sustainable development align seamlessly with the requirements for the Chairperson of the African Union Commission. I am dedicated to transforming the AU into a dynamic force for positive change, ensuring Africa's recognition and empowerment on the global stage.

Thank you for considering my application and I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the African Union's mission and vision.

Yours sincerely,

Anil K. Gayan

Vision Statement (In not more than one thousand (1,000) words, outline how you intend to achieve the aspirations set out in Agenda 2063 and address the most pressing issues facing Africa and the Commission in this role)

My vision for the African Union (AU) is to elevate it into a beacon of progress and hope for all Africans, driving forward the Pan-African dream of a unified, prosperous, and peaceful continent ensuring inclusivity and leaving no one behind. As AUC Chairperson, I am committed to advancing the goals of Agenda 2063, representing our collective aspirations for a prosperous and integrated continent. My focus will be on promoting economic integration, social development, and political stability across Africa so that the Africa we want becomes a reality. By the implementation of Agenda 2063, we can achieve a united Africa that stands tall and strong on the global stage.

My professional and political careers, spanning decades, have given me a unique experience of Africa's vast resources and I have had many opportunities to gauge firsthand what pool of human talent the Continent and its diaspora can together mobilise to achieve the ambitious goals of Agenda 2063 and its Flagship Projects.

Within the institutional set-up of the AUC, I would do my utmost for the AUC to achieve the blueprint of an 'Africa We Want,' prioritising the critical areas such as health, agriculture, environment, infrastructure, energy, education, science, technology, and innovation, while relentlessly pursuing the objectives of peace and security, without which no economic and social development is possible.

I will advocate for Africa's voice to be respectfully heard globally.

Recognizing that persistent conflicts and instability have hindered Africa's advancement, my vision emphasizes a strategic commitment to fostering peace and security. This involves close collaboration with AU Heads of State, government bodies, and the RECs to cultivate enduring stability.

By implementing robust strategies to establish peace within the framework of the African Peace and Security Agenda (APSA), develop effective institutions, and ensure transparent governance, we can address pressing threats like terrorism and lay the groundwork for a secure and prosperous future. I will strengthen the AU mechanisms for conflict prevention, resolution, and peacekeeping.

Good governance and the Rule of Law are integral to Africa's prosperity.

I am committed to enhancing the credibility and responsiveness of our institutions, ensuring alignment with the AU and RECs dedication to democratic principles. By ensuring strict adherence to AU Financial Rules, Staff Regulations, and Operational Manuals, I will promote a culture of zero tolerance for corruption. Prioritizing the reinforcement of democratic values and the effective service of institutions to citizens will be central to my approach, supporting sustainable progress and enduring stability.

Building strong economic networks and encouraging entrepreneurial ventures are essential for unlocking Africa's full potential and reshaping its role in international economics and diplomacy. I will drive economic integration and sustainable development across the continent by promoting policies that eradicate poverty, empower women and youth, and create a secure environment for investment. This will achieve inclusive growth and economic development, leveraging Africa's resources for the benefit of all.

The Blue Economy holds vast potential for Africa and as AUC Chairperson, I will champion initiatives that promote the Blue Economy, ensuring that our maritime resources are utilized sustainably and equitably. By investing in marine industries, we can create jobs, enhance food security, and foster economic growth while preserving our marine ecosystems. I will work to strengthen regional and international partnerships to support the development of Africa's Blue Economy, ensuring that it contributes to the overall prosperity of our continent.

Despite Africa's immense potential, our infrastructure remains underdeveloped and insufficiently funded. By harnessing all resources, we will facilitate the seamless movement of people, goods, and services. Infrastructure development is a cornerstone of my vision as it will address infrastructure deficits, strengthen regional integration, enhance international cooperation, and position Africa as a competitive force in the global economy. As AUC Chairperson, I will prioritize the rapid expansion of efficient and cost-effective intra-African transport and energy networks.

Climate change is an urgent challenge that disproportionately affects our continent and although Africa contributes minimally to global emissions, it bears a significant burden from climate impacts. By leading initiatives for fair compensation and developing comprehensive climate strategies, I aim to prioritize climate change mitigation and advocate for Africa's central role in global climate efforts.

Gender equity and the empowerment of women and youth are crucial to Africa's development. My leadership will focus on creating opportunities for women and youth to flourish, driving sustainable development, and shaping a promising future for our continent. I will champion their rights and ensure their active participation in all spheres of society. Policies that promote gender equality, education, and entrepreneurship will be at the forefront of my agenda, as we work towards a society that values the potential of every individual.

Pan-Africanism is integral to my vision. Having witnessed Africa's historical struggles and the rise of Pan-African ideals, I am determined to turn our collective aspirations into actionable results. I will strive to unite Africa, leveraging our shared history and strengths to overcome challenges and achieve lasting progress. Together, we can build a future of unity, strength, and opportunity for all Africans, ensuring our continent is respected and empowered on the global stage. By building strategic partnerships and engaging with international development partners, the UN system, and other global entities, I will ensure that Africa's interests are represented and respected. Our aim will be to forge meaningful and mutually beneficial relationships that support Africa's development goals.

Policy sovereignty is crucial for Africa's self-determination and development. By fostering a culture of policy sovereignty, we shall ensure that our development strategies are tailored to our unique challenges and opportunities. This approach will enable us to build resilient economies, strengthen governance, and promote sustainable development that aligns with our values and priorities.

Not only will I relentlessly pursue the AU goal of silencing the guns already in our countries, but I will make sure that no new weapons come in. We can transform the AU into a dynamic force for positive change, ensuring that Africa is not only recognized but also respected and empowered in the global arena. Through strategic collaboration and steadfast commitment, we will make Africa proud.

Executive Profile: (In not more than three hundred (300) words, provide a summary and highlights of your relevant skills, experience, goals and accomplishments)

I have throughout the various positions I occupied, brought a can-do and will-do approach. As a lawyer I made sure that I grasped the issues very fast and found solutions to my client's problems. Discipline, hard work, dedication, a keen sense of responsibility and commitment have been my guiding principles.

I believe in timely and effective response.

While I am not against any deal making, I firmly believe that whatever deal is made must be reasonable, socially proportionate and politically acceptable.

I will promote a win/ win approach.

With a career in high-level ministerial positions since 1983, I bring a wealth of hands-on experience in international diplomacy and political leadership.

My association with active politics connected me with the public, and provided me with extensive engagement with trade unions and corporations. This has sharpened my ability to navigate complex societal dynamics and align diverse interests.

My dedication to diplomacy and international relations has equipped me with a nuanced understanding of Africa's challenges and opportunities. Having participated in hundreds of high-level international meetings, I am well-positioned to contribute effectively to the AU. My strategic approach involves leveraging these insights to foster sustainable development, economic integration, and political stability across the continent.

I am committed to consolidating the AU into a beacon of hope and prosperity for all Africans. My focus will be on ensuring that the AU operates efficiently and effectively. By championing initiatives that drive economic growth, empower women and youth, and address pressing issues such as climate change and infrastructure development, I aim to advance the AU's mission of unity and development for the continent.

I first became involved as a delegate of Mauritius to the OAU Summit in Mauritius in 1976. Since then, I have been deeply attached to Pan-Africanism. I have the credentials to lead the AU.

For several years, I have lectured at the Masters' level in International Relations at l'Université de la Réunion, where I have contributed to shaping the next generation of diplomats and policy makers. My role as a lecturer at the University of Mauritius further reflects my dedication to education and my ability to impart complex concepts to diverse student bodies.

I have practiced law before all the Courts in Mauritius and, as a member of the English Bar, I have appeared before the courts of England. It is on account of my extensive practice and I was elevated to the status of a Senior Counsel in 1995 by the President of the Republic in recognition of my work as a law practitioner.

In addition to my academic contributions, I have represented clients before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in numerous high-profile cases. This experience has sharpened my skills in legal advocacy and deepened my understanding of international legal standards and practices. My involvement in these cases has demonstrated my capacity to handle intricate legal matters with precision and expertise.

My engagement with Pacem in Maribus, based in Malta, highlights my commitment to international maritime law and the promotion of peaceful maritime practices. This involvement has allowed me to contribute to global discussions on maritime security and cooperation, further enhancing my experience in international legal and diplomatic arenas.

Currently, I continue to give lectures at the Institute of Judicial and Legal Studies, where I share my knowledge and insights on judicial and legal matters. This ongoing role reflects my enduring passion for education and my commitment to fostering a deeper understanding of legal principles among law professionals.

These achievements collectively illustrate my broad expertise in international relations, legal advocacy, and academic instruction. My extensive experience in teaching, legal representation, and international collaboration has equipped me with a comprehensive skill set that I am eager to leverage in contributing to impactful and strategic roles. Each of them underscores my dedication to advancing global understanding, promoting legal and diplomatic excellence, and contributing to meaningful progress in the international arena.

When the National Assembly decided to set up Select Committees on pressing issues of national importance the Prime Minister always included me on them.

I have an excellent reputation for professionalism and an attachment to 'doing well whatever I have to do'.
