3. Recalls its 314th meeting held in Bamako, Mali, on 20 March 2012, and reaffirms its communiqué PSC/MIN/Comm.(CCCXIV) on the situation in Mali, in particular the need to bring to a speedy end the attacks by rebel movements in the north of the country, to restore the authority of the Malian state throughout its territory and to find a lasting solution to all legitimate claims, based on full respect for the national unity, territorial integrity and sovereignty of Mali;
4. Deplores the loss of life and strongly condemns the looting and abuses committed by soldiers in Bamako and elsewhere in Mali, and calls for an immediate end to these acts. Council demands the release of all political prisoners detained since the coup d'Etat and will hold accountable all persons responsible for the breakdown of security and public order in Mali;
5. Expresses concern that the Foreign Ministers of Kenya and Zimbabwe, who were in Bamako for a ministerial meeting of the Peace and Security Council dedicated to the situation in the Sahel region, together with other officials, remain trapped in the Malian capital. Council calls on the perpetrators of the coup d'Etat in Mali to ensure their safety, facilitate their immediate evacuation and allow all other nationals who wish to leave Mali to do so immediately;
6. Endorses the communiqués on the situation in Mali issued by the Chairperson of the Commission on 21 and 22 March 2012, as well as the communiqué of the President of ECOWAS Commission issued on 22 March 2012;

8. Strongly condemns the breakdown of constitutional order in Mali, following the coup d'Etat of 22 March 2012 and the seizure of power by a section of the Malian army. Council stresses that this coup d'Etat, coming just before the presidential election, scheduled for 29 April 2012, constitutes a serious setback for Mali and for the democratic processes taking place on the continent;
