BANJUL DECLARATION ON THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE AFRICAN CHARTER ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES' RIGHTS

We the Heads of State and Government of the African Union meeting in the 7th Ordinary Session of the Assembly, held in Banjul, The Gambia from 1st – 2nd July 2006;

Noting the fact that this year marks the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the adoption of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (the African Charter) by the Eighteenth Assembly of Heads of State and Government, in June 1981 in Nairobi, Kenya, and the twentieth year since it entered into force in 1986.

Recalling the firm conviction of the Member States of the Organization of African Unity in their duty to protect human rights and freedoms and taking into account the importance traditionally attached to these rights and freedoms in Africa, against the backdrop of their efforts to achieve the total liberation of Africa, the people's of which were still struggling for their dignity and genuine independence, undertaking to eliminate colonialism, neo-colonialism, apartheid, Zionism and to dismantle aggressive foreign military bases and all forms of discrimination on basis namely of race, ethnic group, color, sex, language, religion, political or any other opinion, national and social origin, fortune, birth or other status.

Considering the contribution of the adoption of the African Charter to the promotion and protection of human and people's rights in Africa.

Bearing in mind that today the wisdom of having taken this decision continues to demonstrate itself in view of the fact that the African Charter has provided a legal framework for the promotion and protection of human and peoples' rights on our Continent and development of the jurisprudence of the African Commission on Human and People's Rights (ACHPR) attests to this achievement.

Also Recalling the decisions of the African Union whereby we expressed the need for the ACHPR to be provided with adequate human, material and financial resources to enable it effectively fulfill its mandate under the Charter.

Further Recalling the decisions at our Assembly to review the operation and composition of the ACHPR with a view to strengthening its independence and operational integrity and ensuring appropriate gender representation.

Noting that the African Charter has contributed to the development of human rights norms on the continent, including the adoption of supplementary instruments such as the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child and the Protocols on the establishment of the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights and on the Rights of Women.

Recognizing that all Member States have ratified the African Charter which makes us all Parties to the African Charter.

Expressing our appreciation to the ACHPR, which also commemorates its Twentieth Anniversary this year, for the laudable role it has played, in collaboration with its partners, particularly civil society organizations and national human rights institutions; in ensuring the promotion and protection of human and peoples' rights in Africa, in accordance with the African Charter.

Cognizant of the fact that poverty and human rights violations are among the root causes of conflicts on our Continent, and wishing to seize the opportunity of the occasion of this Anniversary of the African Charter to re-dedicate ourselves to the promotion and protection of human and peoples' rights on the Continent:

1. Express great satisfaction at the positive contributions made by the African Charter towards the promotion and protection of human rights in Africa.
2. Reiterate our unflinching determination to promote and protect human and people's rights and all basic freedoms in Africa as well as our full support to the work of the ACHPR and all human rights treaty bodies established on the Continent.
3. Commit ourselves to undertake the necessary measures to respect and guarantee the independence of the ACHPR, as well as to provide it with the necessary human and financial resources, in order to enable it effectively discharge its functions.
4. Urge Member States to take the necessary steps to fulfill their obligations under the African Charter and other human rights instruments to which they are parties, in particular, the implementation of decisions and recommendations of human rights treaty-bodies.
5. Welcome and express our full support to the newly established African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights whose role is to complement ACHPR in its human rights protective mandate and commit ourselves to provide the necessary human and financial resources to allow the new Court to discharge its functions effectively and efficiently as well as to fully cooperate with and render all the necessary assistance to the Court.
6. Take note of the recent developments of the ongoing process of the merger of the Court of Justice of the African Union and the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights in order to rationalize our institutions, ensure cost effectiveness and avoid unnecessary duplications.

7. Rededicate ourselves to ensuring respect for human and peoples' rights as a pre-requisite for the attainment of our common vision of a united and prosperous Africa, and reaffirm our confidence in the ACHPR.

TRIBUTE TO MR. KOFI ANNAN, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS

We, the Heads of State and Government, meeting in the 7th Ordinary Session of our Assembly, noting that the second term of office of our brother Kofi Annan as Secretary General of the United Nations Organization is drawing to a close, pay special tribute to Mr. Kofi Annan who, as Secretary General, for two consecutive mandates, has presided over the destiny of the world, a globalized world undergoing constant change in which challenges to be addressed formed the daily lot of his preoccupations. He has in these instances demonstrated outstanding competence in finding appropriate solutions to these various challenges.

We have noted with appreciation his initiatives in contributing to the economic and social development of our continent through the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs). Also noteworthy is the daunting dossier he launched for the reform of the United Nations and particularly the Security Council. The reform of the Security Council based on the principles of equity, justice and representation, should enable Africa regain its rightful place in the concert of Nations and above all increase its influence in the world and in the decision-making bodies of the UN including the Security Council.

Mr. Kofi Annan, the illustrious son of Africa, has in his ten years at the helm of the UN, honoured our continent; held high the torch of justice and demonstrated self-abnegation and modesty that characterized his two mandates. He has honoured Africa in all corners of the World, and has been present in the battlefields and in conflict areas where his interventions were exemplary and crucial.

We, therefore avail ourselves of this opportunity to pay solemn and well-deserved tribute to Mr. Kofi Annan and express all our pride in him, an illustrious son of the Continent, a citizen of the World and indeed a great man in the service of the entire humanity.
